Description

Zbrzyca is unquestionably the most beautiful tributary of the Brda River. The route passes through magnificent forests and several lakes. The river and its surroundings get more beautiful with every kilometer, and this is an easy and troubleless route. On your way you will encounter great glacial lakes and enjoy the charms of Zaborski Landscape Park. The park consists of forests, swamps and bogs, rare relict and protected species of plants, charming chains of lakes ... You can also visit the village of Sominy as well as the museum located there.

Zbrzyca route is easy and does not require much experience. Canoeing here is suitable for first adventure with the canoe, as well as for team building.

When you get to know Zbrzyca, you will crave for another adventure - perhaps at Brda.
