Description

Here you can see beautiful meanders. Great fun is waiting for you thanks to the numerous obstacles and fast current. But do not forget to look around, because the nature and the views are simply wonderful. You will be able to admire the mill in Jamrzyn and explore Kashubian Dębica. When you reach the village you will be upset this is the end ...

Skotawa is a right tributary of Słupia. Skotawa route is not one of the very difficult ones, but it requires some experience due to the obstacles. The river has a really strong current at places and a lot of stone rapids. The section we offer here is no different. The ones who have already canoed on the river with fallen trees and quite a strong current, have no reasons to worry, of course.

This entire section requires you to carry your kayak only once and it takes place at the trout farm where you can purchase fresh fish as a form of reward. Insignificant events of carrying the kayaks may or may not take place - depending on the water level and the skill of the kayaker.

After this trip it is time to start looking for something more difficult.
